

Energy, Frequency, and Vibration

If you are new to our sites, you will hear and read about resonance, vibration, gratitude, love, spirituality, free energy, ascension, pineal glands, chakras, and Imagination-Inspiration-Intuition. Perhaps you are highly knowledgeable about these topics. Or maybe these concepts are new or vague to you.

You might ask:

“Why does a truth news site include ‘new age’ videos, articles, and links?”

We believe that it is equally, if not more, important to show the path forward in human evolution instead of dwelling on the all the negativity. There is plenty of that on the internet! We hope to provide you with truth balance — the top of Cat Reports are dedicated to truth news, and the lower bottom for demonstrating how amazing your life is once you align your chakra energy, cleanse and activate your pineal gland, and unfold your full potential as a human being.

This is what our “planetary rulers” do not want us to know because once we become awake, conscious and engaged, they cannot enslave us with fear, doubt, and hatred.

Tyla and Douglas Gabriel offer to be your geopolitical – spiritual sherpas on this journey and are well suited for the teaching assignment. Tyla has a masters degree in humanities and adult education, with post grad in economics. Douglas’ background is extensive as you have probably figured out, but for his teaching creds, he has a masters degree in Waldorf education as well as several PhDs, one in comparative religion. The Gabriels have published several books on spiritual topics and are available in print on Amazon or free PDF versions – here.

Welcome to our digital classroom which we call the Glass Bead Game, filled with lessons, images, and videos to help you navigate your way through this new age that we are entering.

Following Tesla's suggestion, the Gabriels offer curated articles and videos on VIBRATION, ENERGY, RESONANCE, and FREQUENCY.

Learn how your life can have more love, joy, health, and abundance by experiencing the secrets that our planetary rulers have been trying to keep from us for millennia.

If you are new to the Glass Bead Game, you might start looking through the videos that we saved under the YouTube playlist Glass Bead Game. Doesn't matter what order you view them in. Your angels will guide you to just the right one at the right time.

Let's get started and make sure we all understand the basics of vibration, frequency and resonance with this video entitled:

Resonance – Forced Vibrations – Demonstrations in Physics

Next, we look at resonance in a closed circuit.

Tesla Coil Wireless Energy and Resonance Demonstration

Were you excited to see electricity coming from a light bulb that was not plugged into a wall socket? There are hundreds of free energy devices available to us. We wrote about free energy in the article link just below. The corrupt U. S. Patent Office keeps this technology from us so that it can be used by Big Energy, Big Social Media, Big Military, Big Banks to keep us enslaved to their global debt system.

The Free Energy Revolution Has Begun

We have also alerted our audience about other free energy technologies that humanity could start using TODAY once we overthrow the evil Pilgrims Society's rule over the planet.

GALT: The Best Kept Secret in the World that Could Free Humanity with Unlimited Free Energy

Can you imagine, after seeing the video above, how one person might sympathetically resonant with another person? Even over great distances?

Isn't your heart vibrating? Perhaps that special person somewhere far away is still vibrating in sympathetic resonance with your heart.

Our earth vibrates as she rotates in her different atmospheres and emits a vibration that is called the Schumann Resonance, which is about 7.83 hertz. The human heart emits a frequency also, which is about 7.83 hertz. Is the human heart in sympathetic resonance with the earth?

Have you ever walked into a room and immediately “felt the energy” of someone in the room that you were attracted to, and, after speaking with them, find out that the person has many similar interests to you and have many things in common?

Is this a form of sympathetic resonance? They say that a “saint knows a saint and a sinner knows a sinner” It begs the question, do humans have vibration antennae that can send and received frequencies of different rates? The answer is yes, and the explanation takes some time describe. It is called the path of ascension and requires aligning your different energy centers with specific cosmic harmonics.

We exist on a continuum of vibrations, or frequencies, emitted by all things. These vibrations create a specific frequency signature for different substances. Natural silica, like quartz crystal, vibrates at 32,768 vibrations per second no matter where it is found on the earth, and there is much of it in the human body. As quartz disintegrates (entropy), it emits this particular frequency. Other minerals and substances emit different frequencies also.

According to Einstein, "Everything in life is vibration." Nikola Tesla said, "If you want to find the secrets of the universe, think in terms of energy, frequency and vibration."

On the spectrum of vibrations from low to high, we can find warmth, light, color, sound and their many harmonics, as well as higher vibrations of radio frequencies, ultra-violet, and gamma waves among others.

Is it possible that as we learn to vibrate in resonance with higher harmonics that we might come to vibrate at higher frequencies?

Are these higher frequencies parts of our higher nature that we someday will come to inhabit as a home? Is this why in different religions angels sing, archangels play musical instruments, and archai dance? Are these higher stages of vibration with which human beings will come to resonant sympathetically?

It reminds us of the lyrics to the Moody Blues song Departure:

Be it sight, sound, smell or touch

There's something inside that we need so much

The sight of a touch

Or the scent of a sound

Or the strength of an oak

With roots deep in the ground

The wonder of flowers to be covered

And then to burst up

Through tarmac [darkness]

To the sun again

Or to fly to the sun

Without burning a wing

To lie in a meadow

And hear the grass sing

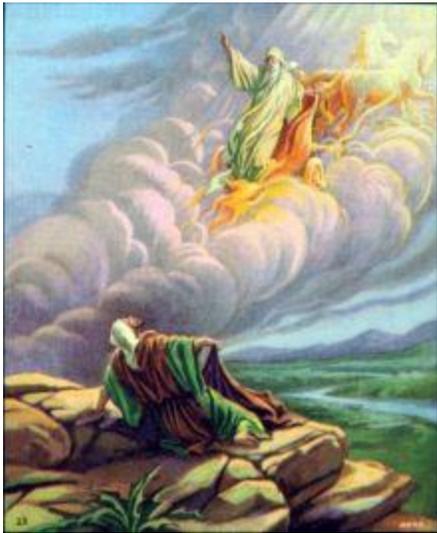

To have all these things

In our memories hoard

And to use them

To help us

To find...the Lost Chord.

Perhaps the path of spiritual development is to ascend from lower, darker vibrations into the wondrous colors, sounds, and brilliant light of higher vibrations. Perhaps this journey is like climbing “Jacob’s Ladder” to heaven, like the angels ascending and descending that Jacob saw in his dream.

Or like Paul, who was “caught up to the seventh heaven” and came before the brilliant throne of the heavenly one. Is this what was meant by Enoch or Elisha being “translated” into heaven before their eyes, a type of raising the vibration of the saint so that they might enter into another world?

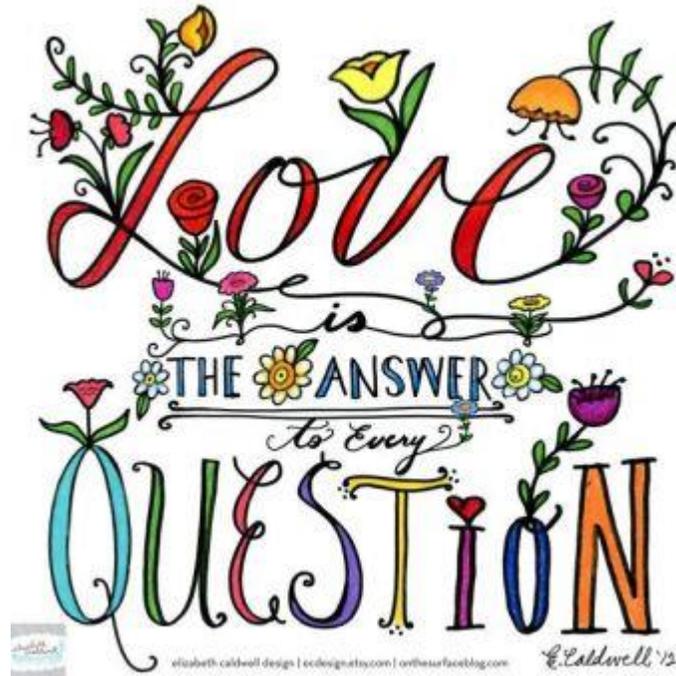

All of these questions need to be wrestled with as the modern person tries to become more of an angel than an animal in all that they do – a sort of raising owns own personal vibration. There are many secrets to the processes of ascension and these “lessons on vibrations” will help put issues of human and cosmic vibration in perspective.

In order to break these “chains”, one needs to step beyond the limited constructs of the physical world.

We created the Glass Bead Game as a digital learning environment for you to explore your higher nature and, ultimately, to help you achieve the higher energies and frequencies that draw love, joy, freedom, and abundance to you. Additionally, we are continue to post material on “Energy, Frequency, and Vibration” to show you how these concepts are applied to physical science as well as spiritual science.

If you find that your Imagination is limiting you in finding answers, you might consider starting the ASCEND program so that you can balance and activate your chakras.

A calcified pineal gland, for example, can block you from the flow of Imagination, Inspiration, and Intuition. Poor digestion can keep you stuck in your lower chakras, impeding your progress in opening up the heart, throat, third eye, and crown chakras.

Our first lesson in the ASCEND program is on the Foundation Chakra. It is easy to read and even easier to incorporate in your every day rhythm.

Frankly, we know how powerful the ASCEND protocol is. Take a moment and look at all of the material we have provided you in our websites, books, audios, citizen intelligence reports, articles, posts, etc. We have been following these protocols with great success and recommend them to our truth community.

Once your chakras are balanced and energized and your pineal gland is humming with the frequencies of higher dimensions, there is no telling, Jeff, what you will be able to accomplish in stopping “this train”. Each of us has a unique capacity that can be used to help all of us overthrow these planetary rulers. Discover yours.
